Both of his children play violin, his daughter acts, sings and dances competitively for her school, and his wife co-produces musicals on Broadway in her spare time.

So when The Symphonia chamber orchestra asked mega-volunteer Bryan Drowos to join the organizations' board of directors, he didn't hesitate.

"Music has always been an important part of our family's life, and it's such a gift to have world class musicians performing in our city," Drowos said. "I'm proud to be involved with The Symphonia and encourage others to support its mission to inspire, educate, and engage our community through extraordinary musical experiences."

Drowos is a private wealth financial advisor and managing director of investments at Drowos Wealth Management Group of Wells Fargo Advisors.

He's been an active participant and leader in the Boca Raton community and is currently serving on the regional board of Hillel of Broward and Palm Beach.

He's also an executive committee member and board member of the Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County. Drowos is a member of the White Coat Society for the Schmidt College of Medicine at FAU and he coaches baseball for the Boca Raton Little League.

"I was honored to be asked to join the Boca Symphonia Board of Directors and help bring elite classical music performances to our community," Drowos said.

He learned the importance of giving back from his parents and grandparents. He learned a love of the arts from his wife, Joanna, and their children, Lila, 11, Jackson, 9.

"I'm blessed and I feel fortunate to be able to share those blessings with others," Drowos said. I've been actively involved in volunteering both in our local community and around the world for as long as I can remember, from coaching little league to helping provide diapers and food to those in need in our community to helping fund scholarships for students attending our local medical school to visiting and providing aid to underserved communities in India and Ethiopia."

Juggling his job, family and volunteering is a true balancing act for Drowos and his family.

"The trick is not to 'find' time, but rather to 'make' time to do what is important to you," he said.

"I run a business, my wife is a busy physician, our kids go from school to their sports and activities. Being busy doesn't give us a pass on giving back. We make time to volunteer, to help

Enjoy Afro beats and reggae at Jupiter fest

Feelin' irie?

No? Then head over the Guanabana's in Jupiter for Afro Roots Fest this Saturday.

Let this music festival help you take a break from the world and, at least for a few hours, relax, have some fun and get that good-time irie feeling flowing.

Facilitating the flow at this award-winning festival will be Philip Montalban, Panafrik, the Bad Apples Brass Band and DJ Ephniko.

Montalban is an Afro Latino reggae artist from Nicaragua who will instantly kick the vibe meter sky high with songs like "Selah," "Rundown," "Vuelva," "Darling U" and many more.

Panafrik mixes the traditions of West Africa, Cuba, Brazil and numerous other folkloric styles of music found throughout the African diaspora.

A New Orleans group based in South Florida, the Bad Apples Brass Band will bring some serious fun and funk to the party on Saturday. With an infectious street beat mixed with the funkier jazz and heaviest sounds they've opened for and jammed with some of NOLA's greatest, including Rebirth Brass Band, Bonerama, Papa Grows Funk, Glen David Andrews Band and Troy Anderson and his Wonderful World Band. Their set will overflow with the good time fun.

DJ Ephniko is an MC who fronts the six-man audio/visual collective Nag Champayons and leads the Patacon Conspiracy, which fuses hip-hop and raw lyricism with Pan-African and Latin American rhythms to create a worldbeat sound.

Celebrating the widespread influence that Africa continues to have on music, Afro Roots Fest is organized by the Miami-based non-profit organization Community Arts and Culture

The Symphonia, recognized as the region’s premier chamber orchestra, provides high-quality classical music for the enjoyment and benefit of the South Florida community. For more information, go to thesymphonia.org.

Who is your hero?

I don’t have one particular hero, but I have been fortunate in my life to meet many philanthropists and leaders who continue to raise the bar and set an example for how to live generously.

What is your favorite movie?

I am an unapologetic Adam Sandler fan. Love him. My wife and I saw “Big Daddy” on our first date.

What are your hobbies?

I enjoy running, playing softball, coaching little league, fine dining and wine tasting (my wife and I both achieved the WSET Level One Award in Wines this year)

What do you do to get away or take a break?

Pre-pandemic, travel around the world was my getaway. These days, a glass of wine in the backyard with friends is a great getaway.

If you could have dinner with anyone in history, who would it be?

Are we dining together or are they cooking for me? If the latter, I’ll have dinner with Daniel Boulud any day.

What is the best advice you ever received?

Live life like everything you do will be on the front page of tomorrow’s newspaper; and be proud for other people to read it.

What is your favorite book and why?
